

Wild About Lebanon

A series of outdoor events celebrating conservation and open space in Lebanon, NH

SPONSORED BY THE UPPER VALLEY LAND TRUST, THE CITY OF LEBANON
CONSERVATION PROGRAM, AND THE LEBANON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Winter & Spring Calendar

February 15th (12-2pm)

Class 6 Road Snowshoe (or Hike) on the Hall Road

Trailhead located at 218 Poverty Lane (map)

Join UVLT and City of Lebanon staff for a Saturday Snowshoe to explore some of Lebanon's interesting class six roads. From the trailhead off of Poverty Lane, we will move southwest, passing the southern end of the Lebanon airport, connecting with the Hall School Road, and then returning to the trailhead. (approx.. 2 mi, easy)

March 12th (5-7pm)

Hike (or Snowshoe) Signal Hill

Stevens / Alden Road Trailhead (map)

Celebrate the returning of the light with a hike the day after Daylight Savings Time begins. The sun won't set until almost 7pm so let's get outside for this nice after work hike! This hike on old logging roads goes uphill to beautiful overlooks, through two large fields and dense pine woods to a clearing that affords views of Croydon Mountain, Mount Ascutney, and Blueberry Hill. If conditions are appropriate we will end with a small campfire. (2 miles, easy)

April 22 (3-4:30 pm)

Earth Day at Starr Hill

Celebrating the Spirit of Conservation and the life of Laurel Letter

Alice Peck Day Hospital / The Woodlands (map)

Join UVLT staff in a short hike from the Woodlands through Starr Hill Preserve. We will start at the Woodlands upper parking lot to the plaque dedicated to Laurel for her hard work to help UVLT buy, conserve, and give the property to the City. (1 mile, moderate)

May 15th (8-9:30 am)

Bird Walk at Chambers Memorial Reserve

Faraway Lane, West Lebanon (map)

Join UVLT staff member Kaytee Currie-Huggard for an early morning bird walk at the Chambers Reserve in West Lebanon. This hour and a half long walk will take you through pine and hemlock stands through open fields to views of the Connecticut River. Meet at the Kiosk off of Faraway Lane, please park on the south side of the road (2 mi, moderate with some steep & strenuous down/up hills).

June 11th (5-6:30 pm)

Ticknor Woodland Trail Hike

Dulac Street Trailhead (map)

Join UVLT and the City of Lebanon to explore the Ticknor Woodlands property. Meet in the parking area off Dulac St just past the Mt Calvary Cemetery when heading toward Slayton Hill Road. We will walk up to the vernal pool and then follow the trails through the property.

As events are planned more information will be posted on our website calendar:
www.uvlt.org/calendar. Always check there for updates on events!

